Open Andover Drive For The United Fund

Andover's special gifts committee of the United Fund of Greater Lawrence opened its drive last Monday with a group of 80 workers seeking contributions toward the support of 21 agencies.

The workers started their part of the new campaign after an enthusiastic meeting in the Legion headquarters with Stafford A. Lindsay, Andover chairman, presiding. Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the special gifts committee, Dr. Milton J. Meyers and Victor J. Mill Jr., co-chairmen of the Greater Lawrence fund, and Thomas O'Leary, executive secretary also spoke.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that the new United Fund embraces almost all of the agencies that were with the community chest plus several others that formerly conducted separate drives and if contributions are not increased over the amounts given last year the campaign this year will not be a success. This would mean that in another year they would go back to the old system of separate drives for every agency.

Stress was also placed upon the correct level of giving and tables were introduced showing a formula for giving based upon the average giving in 511 United Fund cities of the country.

The special gifts workers are expected to complete their calls and make their reports in a few weeks.

VALE SEWERAGE SYSTEM READY

The new Ballardvale Sewerage system is ready for use, according to word received by the board of public works from the engineers Weston & Sampson of Boston, who represented the town in this project. The system, the engineers say, should be placed in service as soon as possible and the board is now ready to receive applications from abutters to make connections for its use.

Protest School Bus Award

A petition protesting the recent award of a school bus contract to an out-of-town resident was presented to the school committee last night. The committee was meeting in special session with the school building committee.

The petition, signed by about 200 taxpayers of the town, was sponsored by a group of local residents, some of them unsuccessful bidders for the contract, headed by Clarence H. Sanborn and Winthrop K. White.

The school committee last week awarded a three-year contract for an additional bus to Francis J. Twombley of North Andover, using a 1953 bus driven by himself at a figure of $4050 annually plus 40 cents a mile for mileage over 75 miles a day. His bid on a 60-passenger 1954 bus was $4450 plus 40 cents for extra mileage; and on a

Expect Large Gathering At Trade Board Dinner

The meeting is for members, employers and clerks. There will be a short business session to discuss Christmas lighting, elect of-

Awarded Certificate

The police department is the first local group of town employees to have more than 60% of its members enroll in the "Minit A Day" plan for the current United Fund campaign.

Albert Cole Jr., solicitor for the town employees group presented the police department with a "United Fund Charter Member" certificate in recognition of this enrollment, Police Chief David L. Nicoll accepting the award on behalf of the men.

The award is made to any group of employees having 60% or more of its members pledge from their salaries the equivalent of a "minit a day" to the fund.

In presenting the award Mr. Cole said: "The promptness with which these men have pledged themselves to help those less fortunate is typical of their actions in the past. Public employees are not usually found in the higher wage brackets, but they are almost always among the first to be asked and the first to give to a deserving cause. I feel quite confident that all other town departments will follow this excellent example set by our police department.

Discusses Second Coming Of Christ

Last Sunday evening at the November club auditorium, Evangelist John Hayward presented the fourth in a series of public Bible lectures entitled "Christ's Second Coming."

During the lecture, which was based on the promise of Jesus in John 14:3, that He would come again, Evangelist Hayward stated: "The final event of the plan of salvation for sinful humans will be the second advent of Christ to this earth. This greatest event of all time is mentioned 1,518 times in the Bible and it will be fulfilled just as are all divine promises."

He continued by saying: "There is no man on earth who knows the exact time of the return of Jesus, but Christ Himself has predicted the world conditions which would prevail at the time of the end, and said, 'When ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.' (Matthew 24:33)

As man looks to the chaotic world conditions today he recognizes them to be an unmistakable fulfillment of Christ's own prophecy. The signs of the times are fast fulfilling and soon Jesus will come to redeem those who have prepared for it."

Mr. Hayward then proceeded to answer the questions, "How will Christ return?, Why will Christ return?, and What will His coming mean to nations and to individuals?", by reading a large number of Biblical references dealing with this subject.

Next Sunday evening this same Bible lecturer will speak on "Evolutionism versus Creationism", and the public is invited to attend this service at 7:30 p.m. in the November club on Locke st.

All Pitched In

"Not even the vast resources of the federal government could have summoned aid so quickly, and gone about the task of repairing the tremendous damage so promptly as did these (phone and power) companies," says the Rochester (N.H.) Courier about the way utility crews and equipment were hurried into this area when Hurricanes Carol and Edna crashed upon New England last month.

"Within hours," the Courier continues, "the first of them had joined hard-pressed local crews andthe promptness with which they went about clearing the tangle of trees and wires, erecting new poles, repairing transformers and switchboards was a heartening thing and a stirring demonstration of what can be accomplished under the free enterprise system . . . They had the reserve equipment and a well trained army of reserves to throw in when they were needed."

Residents of Andover are fully aware of the promptness with which the phone and power companies set about their task here. In such an emergency the restoration of power and phone service is of top importance. No money and no resource was spared in getting service going again at the earliest possible time.

Incidentally, the Andover Board of Public Works tackled its problem of clearing streets with despatch.Trees were felled across about every street and highway in town and opening them up to traffic was a tremendous job. Extra crews, trucks and power equipment were hired in this emergency so that the fire and police departments and repair crews could move through any part of the town together with the normal flow of traffic.

All pitched in to do a good job.

Building A Community

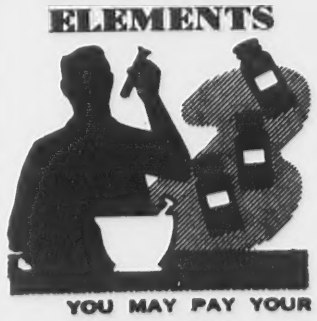

The men who run retail stores are almost always community builders and all-around good citizens. The reason for this can be found in the constructive business attitude which is an integral part of successful retail management. J. C. Penney, one of the country's leading merchants recently made some remarks which illustrate this attitude. Cut-throat competition is out of date and has been for 50 years, says Mr. Penney. "If a man does a good job his competitor needn't worry him. A merchant who approaches business with the idea of serving the public well has nothing to fear from competition. In business as elsewhere we are our own pacemakers

"There is no better friend to any merchant than a fair competitor who profits most because he serves best. It is in service that the real competition occurs.

"Always remember that you are building not just a business but a community".

With this kind of thinking being voiced by leaders in retailing, it's no wonder that local merchants generally are good people to have around. And it provides the best kind of guarantee that the consumer is going to get the utmost in courtesy, service, and quality at the lowest possible price.

TREATING TRENCH MOUTH

By Science Features

During World War I many soldiers suffered from an infectious mouth disease that they promptly called "trench mouth" in honor of their living conditions. Since 1918, trench warfare has become obsolete but the disease, more properly known as Vincent's infection, is still common today.

The exact cause is not clear, but "trench mouth" usually results from crowded, unsanitary conditions, poor oral hygiene, vitamin deficiency and fatigue. These facts can be found at home as well as on a battlefield.

Vincent's infection appears abruptly, producing a painful inflammation of the gums which become very sensitive and bleed easily. The infection can destroy much of the tissue around the teeth and also affect other areas of the mouth.

In treating the disease the gums are always cleaned. With the discovery of antibiotics, penicillin was successfully used but now two New York dentists report that terramycin gives even better results. The investigators tested the wide-range drug in 42 cases of Vincent's infection. Gum areas of 39 patients that were treated with terramycin began healing within 48 hours while unmedicated sections took much longer. Periodic dental check-ups can prevent development of this infectious disease. There is little reason today why trench mouth should not become as outdated as trench warfare.

Appreciates Aid During Hurricane

The fire department and board of public works are commended in a letter received by J. Everett Collins, chairman of the board of selectmen from the New England Milk Producers association for the valuable aid given in saving food during the hurricane of Sept. 11.

The letter read:

October 4, 1954

J. Everett Collins, Chairman
Andover Board of Selectmen
Andover, Mass.

Dear Mr. Collins:

The New England Milk Producers association and the Shawsheen Frosen Foods center wish to express to you our appreciation for the excellent service rendered by the fire department and the board of public works during hurricane Edna.

The aid received enabled us to save invaluable volumes of food belonging to townsfolk and residents of surrounding communities.

It is certainly gratifying to know that such services are ready to help in time of emergencies.

Yours very sincerely,

You may owe your life to a CONCRETE PAVEMENT

You can see farther and stop in a shorter distance on concrete, the safety pavement because:

1. Concrete's light-colored surface reflects up to four times more light than dark-colored pavements. You see pedestrians, obstructions and other driving hazards sooner and have more time to slow down or stop.

2. Concrete's gritty surface has uniformly high skid resistance, wet or dry. Your tires get a firm, tight grip, permitting quick stops without skidding.

Your license fees, gas and other taxes pay for roads and streets. Insist that they be paved with the safest possible pavement—concrete. It may save your life.

Oct. 16 Football - Varsity vs Amherst Fresh, here, 2 p.m. Jay-Vees vs Holderness Varsity, away, 2 p.m.

Cross Country - Varsity vs Tufts Fresh, here, 2:45 p.m.

Soccer

The P. A. soccer team was beaten 3-1 Saturday by a strong Yale Fresh team. Coach DiClementi was somewhat disappointed by his team's play and also felt the large size of the field at New Haven had something to do with the showing. The absence of Bobby Karle and Ben Field coupled with the injury to Mal Black during the game hurt the Blue. He found much to be pleased with the playing of several men, however, and with Capt. Fritz Okie of Sewickley, Pa., who scored the Blue's only goal.

Brown Fresh will meet the P.A. soccer team here Saturday.

P.A. 7, Wesleyan F. 6

By the narrow margin of an extra point after touchdown Phillips academy chalked up its first win of the season Saturday when it won 7-6 over Wesleyan Fresh.

It was Capt. Pete Briggs and Bub Brown who broke through the Wesleyan line to block the extra point placement try in the fourth period that gave the Blue its victory. The team played a 6-6 tie against Worcester academy the week before.

Phillips scored its touchdown after a 75-yard march in the first period and Bruce Smith booted what eventually proved to be the winning point from placement after Russ Shaver's score.

The Blue put on several extended drives but fumbles and pass interceptions stalled their offensive at crucial times.

The visitors scored in the final three minutes when Fitzgerald dashed five yards to cross the final marker.

Cross Country

With Co-Captains Bob Pitts of Red Bank, N.J., and Mac Brown of Salem the cross country team faces bright prospects for an excellent season. Lettermen Bob Scobie of Newburg, N.Y., David Haartz and Larry Lewis, both of Andover, are among the aspirants who have been practicing regularly together with Peter Heese, an exchange student from Germany, who has been placing among the leaders in recent trials.

The highlight of last week's cross country activity was the informal meet with the Harvard Freshmen here Saturday. Although the visitors lacked depth they managed to edge the Andover harriers 28 to 30. Harvard won the first three places. The next six were P.A. runners led by Co-Captains Bob Pitts of Red Bank, N.J. and Mac Brown of Salem, who were pursued by Bob Scobie of Newburgh, N.Y., Dave Haartz and Larry Lewis of Andover, and Pete Hesse, the German exchange student. Coach Pen Hallowell was pleased with the fact that the first six P.A. entrants were just over a minute apart at the finish.

The team will open the season Saturday with Tufts Fresh.

VIEW HIGHWAY

The selectmen have viewed the new two-lane highway on Main street at Wheeler street and Chapel avenue where several accidents have occurred recently, and are of the opinion that a blind spot is created by a high stone wall on Wheeler street which should be corrected.

P. H. S. SPORT

Ipswich 34, Punchard 12

Ipswich won its 15th straight victory Saturday with a 34-12 win over Punchard and thus retained its contention for Class D honors.

The visitors had things their own way from the beginning when they scored 14 points in the first period and added at least a touchdown each of the three remaining quarters.

Punchard got its offensive going in the third and marched to a touchdown when Al Wadman went over from the 1-yard line. The Blue and Gold pushed over another in the final quarter when Al Damon scored from the 2-yard line on a quarterback sneak.

In the first the Punchard team made a good start. Vickers running back the opening kickoff to his own 37 from where a steady drive landed the ball on the Ipswich nine. Here the visitors held and after three plays took the ball on downs. The offensive got rolling after that and in a few plays scored the first of their five touchdowns.

Pledges Reported For Hospital Fund

At a recent meeting of the special gifts chairmen of the Lawrence General hospital $600,000 development fund reports showed that Andover was leading with 71% of its pledges in.

Mrs. A. B. Sutherland, president of the board of trustees, stated that it was gratifying to know that so many citizens of the area served by the hospital are anxious to help.

Along with one pledge from Andover came 11 new nylon babies' blankets as a gift in kind. This was in addition to a cash gift. It is expected the blankets will be sold through the Hospitality shop.

Several of the pledges made were for memorial units, both rooms and equipment. Mrs. Sutherland mentioned that a Memorial Policy committee will be formed to work with donors of such gifts, in the selection of their units.

R. Ashton Smith, director of the hospital, upon being questioned by a worker, stated that no patient is ever turned away from the hospital because of lack of money. "We have especially trained people," he stated, "who are there to help patients' families work out a plan for paying, if necessary, prior to or during the patient's stay. However," he added, "if a patient cannot pay anything at all or can only pay part of his bill for legitimate reasons, he is given the same care as other patients. That is one reason why we, as all other voluntary hospitals, must think in terms of a service fund."

Andover Donates 209 Pints Of Blood

Andover citizens donated 209 pints of blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile was here Oct. 4 and 5. Five pints of blood which were donated Tuesday afternoon were rushed to the Lawrence General hospital to be given in an emergency to a Marland Mills worker.

Frank W. Lilley, chairman of the local blood program, wishes to thank the blood donors and the many volunteer workers who made it possible for the bloodmobile to do so well here. Although the amount of blood donated was slightly below Andover's quota, Mr. Lilley feels this can be explained by the difficulty encountered in recruiting workers and donors following the hurricane disaster.

The volunteers who assisted during the Bloodmobile visit were:

54-passenger bus $4200 plus 40 cents for extra mileage. His bid on the 1953 bus was the lowest received.

According to the petitioners the specifications sent to bidders stated that one or all bids could be rejected by the board. They contend that this particular bid should have been rejected and the contract awarded to a "man in our town where our tax money should be spent," and that it be awarded for new units only.

The petition says, "Your decision should be rescinded and all bids rejected. Start Over. The stipulate that the contract will be awarded to an Andover resident and taxpayer. Also only new units will be accepted."
